PERPETUAL CALENDAR.-We are indebted to Mesers. NASH & MARR, the enterprising Insurance Agents of this city, for a copy of the Perpetual Calendar issued by the Home Insurance Company of New York, for which they are the Agents. This calendar is extremely convenient and useful, and is well adapted to the uses of the counting-room. Messrs NASH & MARE have a hundred or two of them, which they will distribute, free of charge, among the business men of the city-Call and get one.

THE THEATRE .- Our Dramatic Editor, who has an unconquerable antipathy to rain and mud, and refuses to go abroad when such things are in the ascendent, has not yet seen Miss Macanthy on the Nashville boards, but has heard many speak of her in the highest terms as a Commediene. In fact, among those who have seen her, to name her is to praise. They say she sings too like a nightingale.

The plays for to-night are Elly C'Connor and Sheiches in India. There must be a good deal of fun in the former, and it is likely there is in the latter also.

Not a solitary event of any descrip tion whatever transpired in town yesterday. The rain effectually crushed out everything. including much of the anxiety the people felt the day before to hear from the election abroad.

It is to be hoped that the rain o yesterday and last night will keep the river in navigable condition. A few more steamboat-loads of one thing and another are much needed here just now.

UNPARALLELED CONFESSION OF RASCALITY. -All the paragraphs below this are stolen.

CURIOUS STATISTICS .- The foreign papers report that statistics are at present the rage in Paris. An enthusiastic proficient in that study lately calculated that 15 millions of men have perished in the various wars which have been waged since the creation of the world. Carrying his calculations still further, he estimated the blood shed in these wars at 3,500,000 barrels; and, taking the weight of each man at an average of 100 lbs., he concludes that 1,500 000 lbs. of human flesh have been cut to pieces by hostile weapons.

CURE FOR BURNS .- The Gazette Medicale of is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

LAST OF THE CHOIR .- Three of the choir of young girls who, dressed in white, greeted Washington as he entered Trenton in 1789, on his way to assume the Presidency, and strewed his pathway with flowers, still survive. One yet lives in Trenton, one is the mother of Senator Chesnut, of South Carolina, and county, New Jersey.

To DRIVE AWAY RATS -A correspondent of the Gardener's Monthly says:-"I tried the effect of introducing into the entrance of their numerous holes, runs or hiding places, small portions of chloride of lime, or bleaching powder, wrapped in calico and stuffed into the entrance holes and thrown loose by spoonfulls into the drain from the honse, This drove the rats away for a twelvemonth, when they returned to it. They were treated in the same manner with like eff. Ct. The cure was most complete. I presume it was the chlorine gas, which did not agree with their olfactories."

To delina Patti. Have you seen he ? La Divina Adel na ! If you have not heard the ringing, Of her most del clous singing, As the melody o'er powering, Falls in notes of -ilver-showering, Stiding every heart's emotion. Turning laughter to devotion; Scothing serrow from its sadness-Chastening mirth to carnest gladness-Weaving now a spell so slender, Delic te-yet deep and tender : Every heart at once subdairg By its soft melodious cooing !

La Divina

If you have not heard our singer,

Il ar her-not a moment linger !

I have seen her ! Adelias ! I have heard her rich voice ringing Like the Lark "at Heaven's gate singing ;" Now in rapid flights upspringing, Such a snower of diamonds flinging, That amazed-with lips as under Scarcely breathing-wrapt in wonder, Sit I listening, anxious, fearing Lest one note should 'scape my hearing. I have seen her dark chack flushing, Like the sun on ripe peach blushing, As the I fe-blood springs to motion At some passage of devotion ; Or some jove thought, tender, thrilling, With its pains her bosom filling. I have seen her large eyes' flushes-Scorching many hearts to asues-And have felt the potent power Of the little singer's dower. Genius, beauty, youth, are given But to few beneath high Heaven !

Therefore do we bow before her. Listening, breathless-we adore her i As her bird-like voice is ringing, Deem we, 'tis an angel singing! If you have not heard our singer. Hear her !- not a m ment linger. I have seen her! La Divina
